

Judiciary Committee Public Hearing

March 22, 2023

TESTIMONY IN SUPPORT OF SB 5 AN ACT CONCERNING ADDITIONAL LEGAL PROTECTIONS FOR VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Senator Winfield, Representative Stafstrom, Senator Kissel, Representative Fishbein, and members of the committee.

My name is Jenn Lawlor, I am the mother of Emily Todd and the co-founder of Violent Crime Survivors (VCS). We are a survivor-led, community-based, wrap-around organization supporting victims and survivors of violent crime by fostering a community of resources to support survivorship, seek justice, and shape public safety policy.

I write today in support of H.B. No. 5 with the addition of an amendment to the general statutes title 53a establishing the crime of intimate partner violence murder as a Class A felony.

As many of you know, we have been researching, drafting, and proposing this legislation for several years. Many of you have met with Michele Voigt and me regarding the need for Intimate Partner Domestic Violence Murder to be defined in state statute and added to criminal code under Murder with Special Circumstances.

To this end we've had years of discussions, sent 890 emails, drafted three proposals, analyzed Murder with Special Circumstances and how it has been applied, created and tracked sentencing data on every person murdered by an intimate partner in Connecticut since 2000, disseminated Intimate Partner Sentencing Statistics 2000-2018, and obtained 1,341 signatures on petitions asking you to act on our proposals. Our petition is included at the end of my testimony.

And here we are today, arriving at a second public hearing to discuss the addition of "family violence" murder to Murder with Special Circumstances. 24 legislative proposals addressing domestic violence have been introduced this session and 7 of them are addressing the addition of Domestic, Intimate Partner, Family Violence Murder to criminal code Capital A Felony Murder, Murder with Special Circumstances or Class A Felony Murder. I suspect you will be hearing more from us this session.

Participating in public hearings and or providing written testimony is an almost impossible traumatic burden for survivor families to overcome. Preparing testimony is a trauma stimulus akin to making a victim's impact statement at sentencing. Unfortunately, listening to our experiences in the criminal justice process may be the only way by which the Connecticut General Assembly finally acts to repair the injustices our families endure after the horrific and violent killing of our girls. We are the most courageous people, surviving the horrific loss of our children. We find a way to "go on", to raise siblings, to parent our murdered child's children, and to honor our girls through protecting the lives of others. Survivors of intimate partner homicide are the bravest people; yet today, many of us are voiceless, paralyzed by trauma, and cannot associate the words or a way to speak our account or shape our weighty thoughts. Many of us do not have the resources to be here before you to tell you of our horror and what we require as justice. Our voices, often swallowed by agony, despair, and fear are the only voices that remain for our girls rendered lifeless at the hands of another.

We will be voices no more and require the murder of our daughters to be addressed in Connecticut Criminal Code and defined as Murder.

I urge your favorable report on SB 5 with the addition of an amendment to the general statutes title 53a establishing the crime of intimate partner violence murder as a Class A felony.

Your consideration of the families who survive intimate partner homicide is appreciated,

Jenn Lawlor, Mother of Emily
