Train

- We recommend coming to Southampton by train.

- Visitors from the South Coast, South East, and South West should alight at Southampton Central Station.

Getting to the campuses from Southampton Airport Parkway Station

- From Southampton Airport Parkway Station, go to the bus stop on the airport side of the station, near the footbridge, and take an Open Day shuttle bus to the University's Highfield Interchange. Student Ambassadors (wearing green T-shirts) will be on hand to direct you. Please allow 20 minutes' transfer time.

Getting to the campuses from Southampton Central Station

- From Southampton Central Station, exit at platform four and take a free Open Day shuttle bus (08:00 -18:00) to the University's Highfield or Avenue Campus, or to the Waterfront Campus (National Oceanography Centre Southampton).
- The uni-link bus U1A also goes to Highfield Campus. Please allow up to 25 minutes' transfer time.

Car

- We regret that aside from pre-booked disabled parking, there is no visitor parking at any of our campuses.
- If you are travelling by car, please park in the Multi Storey car park (not the Podium) at West Quay shopping centre. If you are using a sat nav, enter 'Harbour Parade' as the destination road. The car park is accessed from this road.

- Once parked, exit the West Quay Car Park on Level 7 (Lower Shopping). Our Student Guides (in green t-shirts) will direct you. If you find yourself in West Quay shopping centre, exit through the doors opposite Waterstones and you will see the Student Guides at the bus stop outside.
- Our complementary shuttle bus service will be available all day from West Quay Car Park (Portland Terrace).
- Our buses operate to all our Southampton campuses - Highfield, Avenue, Boldrewood Innovation Campus and the National Oceanography Centre Southampton.

Coach

National Express

- Visitors arriving at Highfield Campus by National Express, alight at the Burgess Road stop.
- Visitors planning to visit Avenue Campus, alight at the Burgess Road stop and make your way to the Highfield Interchange, where you can change to an Open Day shuttle bus or walk. Student ambassadors (wearing yellow or green T-shirts) will be on hand to direct you.
